THE STATE ALLIANCE.

This morning, in Asheville, the fourth annual meeting of the Farmers' Alliance of North Carolina will convene in Asheville. Four years ago, when the first meeting of the State Alliance was held at Rockingham, it was a very small body and exerted no influence except in a few counties in the southern part of the State. Only eight counties were then organized. CAPT. S. B. ALEXANDER was then elected President, though he was not a delegate and was not present. COL.
L. L. POLK was elected Secretary.
Rapidly the order has grown under the aggressive policy of its first and later officers, until to-day it numbers nearly 90,000 members, and has an organization in every county in the State except the county of Dare.

We had the pleasure of meeting Mr.
ELIAS CARR, President of the State Alliance, in Raleigh Saturday on his way to the great gathering, and of discussing with him the value and power of the order. He is one of the most successful farmers in North Carolina, and withal a most accomplished gentleman—one who in success and education is eminently qualified to preside over the great gathering of farmers who will be represented in Asheville when he lets his gavel fall to-morrow at 12 m.

The State Alliance is composed of one delegate and one alternate from each county in the State. It is a secret organization and the deliberations are therefore not open to the public. Mr.
D. H. BROWDER, of the CHRONICLE staff, is in attendance and will keep the readers of this paper posted upon all matters which are given to the public.

To-day at 12 o'clock the Alliance will be called to order in secret session, and this afternoon there will be a public meeting. An address of welcome will be delivered by GEN. R. B. VANCE and the Mayor of Asheville. Addresses will be delivered by prominent citizens—a reception will follow, tendered by the citizens of Asheville and the Buncombe County Alliance.

WORDS OF WISDOM.

(Extract from proceedings of Cedar Creek Township, Cumberland county, meeting, in Fayetteville Observer.)

On motion of Maj. Jno. Evans, all persons present who expected to vote and act with the Democratic party were invited to participate in the proceedings of the meeting. Maj. Evans made a very strong and effective appeal that the Farmers' Alliance, with its great influence, should remember the paramount importance to good government of fealty to the principles of Democracy.

WANAMAKER to his Bible class: Young gentlemen, in the interest of morality I have excluded Tolstoi's last book from the mails. As you will want to judge for yourselves, I take pleasure in stating that I have ordered a large number of copies of the work to be placed on sale at my store.—Atlanta Constitution.

HE TALKS WISELY.

HON. W. J. NORTHERN, a leading member of the Alliance, and a gentleman of acknowledged ability and great popularity, who was nominated for Governor of Georgia last week, made a speech of great wisdom. We have space only for an extract, but it will serve to show his wisdom, his faith in Democratic principles, and his devotion to the Democratic party as the party of all the people, especially the agriculturists. We quote:

Our duty now takes hold upon the living present. Above all things else political, involving, if need be, any sacrifice of personal ends and personal views, the security of the government and the stability of the State must be founded on the absolute unity of the national Democratic party.
The Democratic party, if ever in power, stands pledged to the proper adjustment of the burdens of government, to the devotion of the masses, to the exercise of any and all rights common to any and all people, to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, and to the proper increase of the currency to meet the necessary demands of legitimate business, to the reduction of the tariff, so as to draw no more money from the people than is absolutely necessary for the administration of the government; the Democratic party, claiming for every citizen the free and untrammelled right to the expression of his choice at the ballot-box, will exhaust all legitimate resistance to Federal interference with our elections; the Democratic party, bravely standing upon the broad principles of American freedom—equal rights to all men and special privileges to none—will demand for every citizen individual liberty, for every citizen local self-government and the rights of the State, and for all people an honest, fair, judicious and economical administration of public affairs.

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THIS,
WHITE MEN?

(From National Republican.)

When through the operation of the Lodge national election bill six or seven Southern States shall discard Democratic rule, we shall look confidently to see some measure of justice done the blacks who have been so long defrauded of their rights.

Heavy taxes should be laid upon the property of the whites to develop and extend the public school system in those States, separate schools for the two races should be abolished, and the plan of bringing the youth of both colors into close and equal relations in schools and churches given a fair trial as one of the most potent elements to break down the detestable bourgeoisie of the South.
The right of the black to bear arms should be guaranteed to him, as well as the social rights intended to be secured him by the passage of the 14th and 15th amendments to the constitution. The State laws against the inter-marriage of the races should be repealed, and any discriminations against the blacks in the matter of learning trades or obtaining employment should be made a criminal offence, while the colored man's right to hold office should be sacredly protected and recognized. A few years of this policy will solve the race problem satisfactorily.
The talk of Southern Democratic Congressmen in the House on Lodge's national election law bill reminds one of the fiery diatribes of Southern Representatives just before the war. But the plantation whip was cracked in vain this time. It has been a long time since then, and the world—all but the Southern section of the United States—has grown wiser.

A POSER.

HE is a good one, is BENJAMIN FRANK-LIN GRADY, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Third district, but we are afraid that he has been asked one question now which will be hard for him to answer. A correspondent of the Clinton Caucasian propounds several inquiries to him, and closes with this difficult one:

"WHERE IS EX-PRESIDENT HAYES?"

HOME-SPUN YARNS.

(Charlotte Chronicle.)

In the good old days when the Inferior court of Rowan was in the hey day of its glory, a poor little scared nigger was up for stealing a watermelon.
The counsel on either side made able speeches, the jury, of which Frank Rogers was foreman, listened attentively to the arguments, and in due time returned to consider the case. When at length they came filing back a mighty hull fell upon the great crowd in the court house. When the clerk asked, "Gentlemen, have you agreed upon a verdict?" The foreman stepped forward and said: "The jury, after due consideration, find the prisoner at the bar guilty, but inasmuch as the jury finds that every member of it has been guilty at some time of their life of the same offence as the prisoner, they recommend him to the mercy of the court."

Chief Justice F. E. Shober and Associate Justices Sloan and Fraley then put their heads together and shortly after Judge Shober arose and remarked with solemn dignity becoming one who wore the ermine: "The court, after consultation, have agreed, in view of the fact that all the members of this court have been guilty of the same offence as the prisoner at the bar, to suspend judgment in the case."

Prominent Davidsonians.

[Salisbury Watchman.]

Judge Matthew Locke McCorkle, who succeeded the late lamented Judge Ship-p in the 11th district, and Capt. McIver, who received the nomination for Judge over Judge McRae, are both graduates of Davidson College. Hon. A. Leazar, who was lately defeated in this district by Hon. John S. Henderson for Congress, is also a Davidson graduate, as is also the able chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, Ed. Chambers Smith, and the solicitor of the Superior Court in the 11th district, Frank I. Osborne.

The Farmers in Kansas.

EUREKA, Kan., Aug. 9.—For the past few months it has been known that the Farmers' Alliance would put in the field a new party ticket, to be known as the People's ticket. Much political speculation has been indulged in as to results should this be done. To-day the Convention met and nominated their ticket, composed of Republicans and Democrats, but before they were nominated each one was asked how he stood regarding the old parties, and in reply each one said he was an Alliance man pure and simple. The convention was large and seemed very much in earnest in their deliberations. Most of the day was taken up in discussion and adopting their platform.

CARPETS.

This one item, and it's a big one with us, should be considered by every one intending to buy any kind of floor covering.
We are in better shape than ever, for this season of the year, to show carpets, as we have been buying liberally, and almost every freight brings something new.

The demand for carpets has been unusually heavy for this month, and that, with some alterations that we have been making, has kept this department in some disorder, but now we are about straight, and can show carpets with all our accustomed conveniences.

As to prices, all we will say is that during August you can get prices that you can't get after Sept. 1st.

As to the quality of stock we carry, you haven't an idea, until you come and see, and in the medium grades, we really have for you some of the choicest patterns, and at prices that the same goods have not been offered at in the city.

Will cheerfully submit samples to our out-of-town patrons.

Chowan Baptist Female Institute,

MURFREESBORO, N. C.

Parents and guardians will do well to note the following facts:
The Institute was located at Murfreesboro in preference to many other very desirable places because of its celebrity for health, and the history of the school for more than forty years demonstrates the wisdom of their course.

The beauty of the location is not surpassed in North Carolina. The dormitories were refurnished and carpeted last summer.
The course of instruction is as extensive as the demands of the public will allow.

Only the best and most experienced teachers are employed in all departments, and the work done is thorough.

The charges are as reasonable as they can be made for the class of work done.

The fall session begins on There's a corset that isn't a corset, a waist with straps for the shoulders and rows of buttons to button on skirts and stocking supporters and so forth—the Ball Waist —and that's about the whole of it. No; you can put it in the washtub—no metal in it or on it.

It is worth your seeing, if for nothing but how to sew on buttons to button easy and never come off, and how to make buttonholes wear forever.

Women differ in their ways of thinking and dressing as well as in other ways. This waist is for women whose minds are made up that they won't wear corsets.

There's much to be said on both sides; but did you ever hear of a woman who hadn't made up her mind in some way? and is there any possible use in trying to get her to change it? She will and she will; or she won't and she won't.

You can get the Ball Waist and wear it a week or two or three; and, if you don't want it, bring it back to us and get your money.
